SEARCHING FOR SUGAR MAN ★★★★★

WHAT really happened to American singer-songwriter Sixto Rodriguez who briefly looked like becoming the new Bob Dylan 40 years ago? Is there any truth in the rumour that he shot himself on stage? Devoted fans Steve Segerman and Craig Bartholomew-Strydom discover that fact is much stranger than fiction in one of the year's best documentaries. Eye-opening, moving and inspirational.

Cert 12, StudioCanal; DVD/Blu-Ray release

TOTAL RECALL ★★

DULL, mindless remake of the Arnold Schwarzenegger science-fiction adventure with Colin Farrell inheriting the role of the menial worker yearning for a little more excitement. He visits an agency that can place false memories in your mind and is soon running for his life, playing a key role in the resistance and wondering if any of this is for real. You will appreciate how he feels.

Cert 12, Sony Pictures UK; DVD/Blu-Ray release

THE BAYTOWN OUTLAWS ★★

IF YOU have a fondness for slick, sick guilty pleasure action movies then this lurid little offering should be ideal. Billy Bob Thornton heads a trio of hillbilly brothers hired by Eva Longoria for the safe return of a child who has been kidnapped.

It isn't quite that simple and soon the brothers are waging an all-out war against some of the roughest, toughest dudes in the land. Shameless B-movie nonsense.

Cert 15, Universal Pictures UK; DVD/Blu-Ray release
